Fair Dealing Guidelines established

Teachers should know their rights & must know their limits

Teachers may copy short excerpts for students in their class.
But – keep them short!

What is a "short excerpt"?

- 1 up to 10 per cent of a copyright-protected work
- 2 one chapter from a book
- 3 a single article from a periodical
- 4 an entire artistic work from a copyright-protected work containing other artistic works
- 5 an entire newspaper article or page
- 6 an entire single poem or musical score from a copyright-protected work containing other poems or musical scores
- 7 an entire entry from a reference work (i.e., encyclopedia)

Teachers play a leadership role regarding copyright.

YOUR 5 POINT CHECKLIST:

- Set an example of respect for copyright with students.
- Know and respect the limits of the Fair Dealing Guidelines.
- Know your rights and obligations under copyright law. (Have a working knowledge of the users' rights in Copyright Matters!)
- Know the "go-to" copyright person at your school.
- Know the procedure for seeking advice and obtaining permission.
