

Enriching my child's communication skills

- I take time to read, interact, and play with my child in my own language.
- I am proud of my language skills.
- I take advantage of situations that help my child discover the value of speaking more than one language.

I am part of my child's learning!

Valuing French

- I show an interest in my child's school day.
- I show an interest in extracurricular activities in French.
- I ensure that my child has access to books, CDs, videos, and games in French.
- I ask my child about what he or she is viewing, reading, or listening to in French.
- I register my child in French activities.
- I encourage my child to speak French at home.
- I admire my child's ability to speak French.
- I recognize his or her progress in French.
- I find ways to contribute to my child's school life.
- I try to learn French words and expressions and use them with my child.
- I don't mind being in situations where I don't understand everything.
- I serve as a mentor to my child by correcting my own French.

Using resources in the community

- I encourage my child to socialize with other French-speaking children.
- I provide support for my child's homework.
- I make use of the resources suggested by the school.
- I talk with my child about French-speaking people who are involved in the arts, in politics, or in sports.
